

Service (Student Service)

Supporting you through your studies

- Our Student Service Centres offer support, guidance and information, access to online services through the availability of workstations and signposting to other specialist services and support to help you make the most of your time at Hydrogen Energy laboratory, Chittagong.
- The Laboratory has a wide range of specialist services available to support you during your time with us such as counselling, supporting, careers and more.
- We have a world class lab facilities which will support you to complete your thesis project and will help to publish a high impact factor journal publication. We have gas chromatograph, ICP- OES, Hand held XRF, Shieve shaker, Density meter, Ceramic and tiles impact resistance tester and so on.

For more information and details on how to contact us please visit our Specialist Services 2019/20 page here.