

About

The HELC's effort to develop customized and tailor-made processes in order to solve their individual problems and satisfy their needs. From custom proposals, we start projects together with our clients in accordance with their requirements and ideas. Our portfolio comprises technical solutions for waste processing technologies, Hydrogen production, storage plant development, production technologies and unit operations. Hydrogen Fuel Cell and its components development research.